Dear George:

As you know, we are planning to use the C-47 aircraft bailed to Kelly's people for flight-testing of System No. 2. We have been informed by one of Kelly's representatives that inasmuch as that airplane was bailed to them for transportation purposes only, a modification of the bailment agreement to permit its use for system test purposes would be required.

We have indicated several times that this airplane would be needed for flight test, and I do not recall any objection having been voiced by you or Dick to such usage. If, therefore, I am correct in assuming that you believe such use of the airplane to be justified, we would appreciate your initiating such action as might be required to result in the bailment agreement modification necessary. It is contemplated that use of the airplane for system test purposes would be initiated about mid-December of this year.

Sincerely,
